ELITE ISLAND RESORTS SETS THE PACE FOR AN AWARD-WINNING YEAR IN 2014

Leading Caribbean travel company kicks off 2014 with 10 consumer and industry awards

DEERFIELD BEACH, Fla. – March 11, 2014 – Already recognized as a leader in providing authentic Caribbean vacations, Elite Island Resorts proudly announces 10 new awards for three of its premier beachfront properties: Palm Island, a private island resort in the Grenadines; and Galley Bay Resort & Spa and The Verandah Resort & Spa, both in Antigua.

Palm Island ranked among the top five resorts in the Caribbean as a part of Condé Nast Traveler's coveted 2014 Gold List. The resort's spa also was named one of the top 15 spas in the Caribbean and Atlantic as a result of the magazine's 2014 readers' poll. Additionally, Palm Island received Condé Nast Johansens' 2014 Best Waterside Hotel Award, the 2014 Travelers' Choice Award by TripAdvisor and placement within U.S. News & World Report's Best Hotels listing, ranking second out of seven resorts in the destination for 2014.

On the island of Antigua, two of the collection's resorts received notable distinctions. The adults-only Galley Bay Resort & Spa received placement within Conde Nast Traveler's top 15 spas in the Caribbean and Atlantic as well as Travel + Leisure's prestigious World's Best Hotels for 2014. The resort also earned Condé Nast Johansens' 2014 Best Eco Property Award as well as the 2014 Travelers' Choice Award by TripAdvisor reviewers. ISLANDS magazine named both Galley Bay and sister property The Verandah among the best all-inclusive resorts in Antigua for 2014.

"We are pleased to have received these eight new accolades from the industry's most authoritative sources and online reviewers, who are equally discerning," said Elite Island Resorts President Steven Heydt.
